Living in the New Creation

In two sessions Fr. Stegman will explore with us, through the Church's Lenten Sunday readings, Christ's invitation to prepare for the celebration of Easter life. We will first reflect on what Jesus' experience of temptations and his glorious Transfiguration teach us about our humanity. Then we will meditate on Jesus' offer to drink living water, to see more clearly, and to come forth in freedom to live more fully the Paschal Mystery.

This program is a required “Scripture Day” for students enrolled in Years 2, 3 and 4 of the Catholic Biblical School (St. Thomas Seminary CBS 200 and 300) and is ideal for Scripture enthusiasts at all levels of study.
