Sadlier Publishers included)

Presenter:
Charlie Conaghan

Purpose:

1. Develop or enhance your role as a catechetical leader
2. Provide both theory and practical suggestions for developing or enhancing your parish program
3. Assist participants with a possible process for diocesan certification

Designed for:

- Parish catechetical leaders
- Directors of religious education
- Coordinators of religious education
- Sacramental coordinators, etc.

At the end of the workshop you will be able to:

- Understand the 20th century shift in the Catholic approach to Scripture;
- Be aware of the stages of development of Scripture;
- Appreciate the covenant of love originating in the Old Testament and flowering in the New Testament
- Describe the meaning and purpose of Jesus' parables;
- Recognize the message of hope in apocalyptic literature.

The definitive aim of catechesis is to put people not only in touch, but also in communion and intimacy with Jesus Christ.

Catechesis Tradendae
Pope John Paul II

All evangelizing activity is understood as promoting communion with Jesus Christ. Starting with the initial conversion of a person to the Lord, moved by the Holy Spirit through the primary proclamation of the Gospel, catechesis seeks to solidify and mature this first adherence.
