RCIA WORKSHOPS 2012

Archdiocese of Hartford • www.orehartford.org

Come join us for the continuation of our series of RCIA workshops designed for those who minister in the RCIA. Each session will cover an overview of the RCIA period and then emphasize certain ministry skills of Rites associated with that period. Both the theory and the practical application will be discussed. You may attend all or some of the sessions. There will be a separate registration form for each workshop. There is no charge for the workshops, but please register so that we can have the proper number of seats and refreshments.
